From on board His Majesty's Ship Torbay, in the Bay of Revel, July 20, O. S.

ON the 17th Instant at Night Prince Menzikoff arrived at Revel from Riga: The next Day Sir Charles Wager sent Captain Haddock ashore, with a Compliment to the Prince and a Letter: The Captain was received and treated with great Civility by the Prince, who by a Messenger returned an Answer to Sir Charles's Letter. The Prince invited several English and Danish Lieutenants who happened to be ashore on the 18th to dine with him, and entertained them very handsomely. On the 19th the Prince set out for Petersbourg. There is no Appearance that the Russians will make any Attempt this Year.

Notice is hereby given, That there will be a General Meeting of the Trustees for executing an Act for repairing the Roads from Lemsford-Mill in the County of Hertford to Welwyn, and from thence to Cory's-Mill, and from Welwyn through Codicot to Hitchin, at the Swan at Stevenage, on Monday the 5th of September next, at Ten in the Forenoon, being one of their Quarterly Meetings.

London, Aug. 15, 1726.

The Master and Wardens and Court of Assistants of the Pewterers Company, London, who by Act of Parliament are appointed to be Searchers of all Vessels and Wares made of Pewter, which is Tinn manufactured, and to examine the Fineness and due Mixture of such Pewter Metal, of which Tinn is the chief Ingredient, have lately found a considerable Number of Blocks of Tinn sent up from Cornwall and Devonshire to London, as Merchantable Tinn, appearing to have the Coynage Mark, and other Marks, as usual, which upon an Assay taken by the aboveſaid Master and Wardens and Court of Assistants, are proved to be adulterated from Six to Thirty Shillings per Hundred Weight worse than the Standard, the Particulars whereof, and the Tinners Marks, and other Marks and Numbers, will be published as Occasion shall require; but in the mean Time, and until farther Prosecution shall be made against the Offenders, this is to give Notice to all Merchants, Pewterers, and other Persons who deal in Tinn, to be careful in making Assays of what Tinn they shall purchase for the future, so that they may not be damnified by such fraudulent Practices.
